She is from Bristol in the West of England

She thinks French people are welcoming, she likes the culture. The stereotype she has about French people is the cheese and the "baguette". Her favorite monument in Paris is the Eiffel Tour and the Louvre because it's very interesting .Her favorite food in France is Cheese.

In her opinion, life in England is very good, everyone is friendly

She doesn't eats fish and chips very often, she doesn't like it and it's not a healthy food

In her free time she spends time with her friends, does shopping, and practises gym

She recommends to visit the London Borough Market , it's a good place to spend time , do some shopping...

She is an assistant language, so her missions are:

- to have more natural conversation for us
- to teach us about England and the United State of America too!

She has never seen the Queen, she thinks the Royal family is an important part of British culture .Her favorite member of the Royal family is Kate
